During this one-man (and his many-instruments) musical comedy and variety show, all you can do is expect the unexpected.

Did you ever think ACDC, Bohemian Rhapsody, or the Star Wars theme could be played on a ukulele?

Are you ready to enjoy some dazzling arrangements of classic songs and to be amazed at virtuosic skill?

Along the way there will be plenty of comedic and cheeky ditties to get you laughing all night long.

All in all, a highly entertaining and completely unique act for all to enjoy.

“Slick, professional and entertaining...he won't disappoint! Go see his shows!”
