During this one-man (and his many-instruments) music and comedy show, all you can do is expect the unexpected.

Along the way there will be dazzling arrangements of classic songs and popular movie themes, cheeky ditties comedy routines, plus plenty of all-time favourite hits to sing-along to.

Matthew's wild technical of the guitar, ukulele, banjo and bass will be like nothing you've ever seen before.

All in all, a highly entertaining and completely unique act to keep you smiling, laughing and singing the whole night through.
